SHOT AND KILLED.

mes Harrison Would Not Talk Afte Killing Bluford Kennect, Although He Surrendered to Officials.

LEBANON, Ky., Nov. 13.-Amos Harrison late Sunday afternoon shot and killed Bluford Kennett, a well known farmer, who resides at Bradfordsville, The shooting took place at Harrison's home, near Rileys, this county, but it is impossible to learn particulars.

Harrison Sunday night gave himself up to County Judge Kelly. Later he was lodged in jail. He refused to see any one at the jail or make a statement of any kind. It is said that the trouble arose over a remark made by Kennett about Harrison's sister, but this can not be verified.

Judge Ever-ole Not Legally Elected. FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 13 - The court of appeals decided that Judge H. C. cuit judge of the Twenty-seventh judicial district in November 1898, to succeed Judge A. H. Clark, deceased, and that Judge W. L. Brown, who was appointed by Gov. Bradley to serve till the next regular election, was entitled to hold over till the election of 1899, which was the first election held at which state, county, city or district officers were to be elected.

Another Methodist School.

Bowling Green, Ky., Nov. 13 .- The educational committee for the Louisville conference of the Methodist church met here and appointed a committee to select a site for the building of another school similar to the Vanderbilt training school at Elkton. The school will in all probability be located in the mountains. Glasgow, Campbellsville, Burksville, Columbia and Breedings are all pulling for it. The committee will start to visit these places November 27.

MAYSVILLE, KY., October 27th, 1899.

I wish to announce to the public and citizens of Maysville that I, O. D. Barrass, on the 23d of this month bought out the "Power Laundry" of Mr. D. P. Ort of this city. I also hope I may still enjoy the trade of my predecessor, as I have had fourteen years experience in the Laundry business, which insures to the patrons superior work with the least injury to the fabric. To all I say do not forget home industry, as it is patriotic in principle. Yours very respectfully, oct27 2w
